Sick or Shut-In? Please let me know.
I would be honoured to bring Holy Communion to you or give you the Sacrament of the Sick (with my mask on). There are many Catholics who will say, "Father, I know you're so busy - I didn't want to bother you." Drives me nuts. That's why I was Ordained - to be with you.

When I was in Wooler (St. Alphonsus) Parish, I put out a box where people could drop in written questions about their Faith, and why we do certain things in our Catholic faith. I used to call it eywtkatcfbwata!! (Everything You Wanted to Know About The Catholic Faith But Were Afraid To Ask.) The questions were treated anonymously, and I would answer them in the next week's bulletin. So, if you were wondering about anything...email me at frdavidwest@peterboroughdiocese.org and I will try to give an answer or explanation. I won't use your names!

Just so you know...--I had my Covid-19 test this week at Kinsmen's Centre in Peterborough on Tuesday. A little uncomfortable but lasted just a second and didn't hurt at all. The Bishop has directed his Priests to get the test. On Thursday, I received a negative result. Jake was in the back seat at the drive-thru test site - the nurses all came over to pat him through the car window - then had to don new pairs of gloves after. The dog thought he was at a drive-thru for Tim Horton's and couldn't figure out why he didn't get a free Timbit. The life of a dog...

Notice to Parishioners – New Registrar's Directive from the Bereavement Authority of Ontario Requires the Mandatory use of Masks at Funerals.

The Bereavement Authority of Ontario has issued a Registrar's Directive which states that the wearing of masks or face coverings is mandatory for all persons (funeral staff and attendees) inside all funeral establishments or any other indoor setting where a funeral or visitation is held in the jurisdiction of the Haliburton Kawartha Pineridge Health Unit. This includes our own parish. You are asked to bring a mask or face covering and to wear it upon entering the church for a funeral.
