Fr. Michael's Sunday reflection

In today's first reading, we can see a message of preparation in three ways:

1. Filling all valleys, meaning to work on our spiritual weakness especially laziness in prayer.
2. Levelling the mountains and hills, meaning to work on our pride, unnecessary ambition, and selfishness.
3. Straightening the highway of the Lord, meaning to make our life more righteous.

Then to achieve all these, John the Baptist in the Gospel encourages us to live the life of humility in carrying out our works both in the church and society. Let us pray for a fruitful advent as we prepare to welcome Christ especially at Christmas.

HAVE A GOOD WEEK.
